DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's amendments filed July 13, 2007 and March 5, 2008 have been received and entered. The amendment to the claims introduces new species and necessitates further restriction.

Claims 1-23 have been cancelled. Claims 24-28 have been added and are currently pending.

Please note that the examiner of record has been changed to Susan Hoffman.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- A: vegetable selected from broccoli, spinach, parsley, komatsuna (Brassica rapa L.), Japanese radish leaves, or a specific combination thereof;
- B: vegetable selected from lettuce, cabbage, celery, or a specific combination thereof;
and
- C: additional ingredient selected from bilberry extract, coenzyme Q10, astaxanthin, tocotrienol, pycnogenol, tea polyphenols, grape seed extract, methyl hesperidin, brown rice powder or a specific combination thereof.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species for each of A, B, and C to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

An example of a proper election is: A: spinach; B: lettuce; C: pycnogenol.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species A and B are listed in claim 24. Species C is listed in claim 28.

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 24, 25, 27 and 28.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: each of the species groups includes vegetables and ingredients that are distinct from each other. An artisan of ordinary skill would not necessarily expect each of the individual species in the species groups to function equivalently. Furthermore, each separate species will require separate consideration and search.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
